ALBERT W. ATWOOD DIES

Mr. Albert W. Atwood, honorary member of the College's Board of Directors, died at the age of 95 on Thursday, January 23. Chairman of the Board from 1946-1948, Mr. Atwood was also the author of Gallaudet College: Its First One Hundred Years.

Memorial services were held on Thursday, January 28.

WFD NEEDS YOU!

As most of you are aware, the VIIth Congress of the World Federation of the Deaf will be held in Washington, D.C., July 31 through August 8. Between 3000 and 5000 participants are expected. Volunteer assistance is urgently needed.

The Potomac Chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association will host a meeting February 12, at 8 p.m., in the Alumni Room of the Library to inform you how you can volunteer your services. If you can write, type, interpret in English or a foreign language, answer calls or offer hospitality you are needed.

Coordinators and committee chairpersons will be on hand to talk with the group. Please plan to attend and bring a friend or two.

RESEARCH FUNDS AVAILABLE

Funds are available for a few small grants for faculty members wishing to engage in research this summer.

Proposals should be in outline form with the problem, question, hypothesis and methodology stated along with any other details you feel necessary. Proposals should be submited anytime during the current semester to Clarence Williams.

An appointment will be made for you to discuss your proposal with a member of the steering committee of the Gallaudet Research Committee or with Clarence.

BITE! BIT! BITTEN!

Shy? Talented? Hungry to learn? Interested in all aspects of the theatre? Or just a frustrated actor with no place to go?

You are needed. All of you. Faculty, staff and students to venture into a new experience.

The Fundamentals of Directing class will hold acting workshops twice a month. Here's your opportunity to work with different types of directors, to learn, to experiment and study for future theatrical work...or just to enjoy yourself.

Auditions will be held on a regular basis. The first BITE! workshop will be held at 2:30 p.m. on January 30, in the Auditorium. Come join the fun!

AROUND AND ABOUT

--Don't forget to tune in to WETA-TV, Channel 26, on Thursday night at 9 p.m, when "In A Silent Way" will be aired. The 30 minute program will focus on Washington's Black deaf community.

--There has been a change in the telephone numbers for the Placement Center. The Center can now be reached by calling either extensions 427 or 814.

--The Center for Visual Literacy has changed homes and now will be located at the College under the directorship of Clarence Williams, one of the Center's original founders.

--If you were employed at the College in October 1972, your February 11th pay check will reflect three months retroactive payment for the period of October 1, 1972 through December 31, 1972.

--Twelve administrators from schools for the deaf around the nation have been attending a two day workshop to bring them up to date on new programs and resources at the College. The program has been conducted by the Public Service Programs.

CIRCLE GALLERY PRESENTS..

the works of Teddy Chang, Eleanor Croneberg, Carol Hommel, Mineo Hoshina, Jacqueline Lawless and David Vernon-- all members of Angelo Corte's fall painting class. The show will be held in the Thornberry Hearing and Speech Center Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., through February 21. Please stop in!

AMONG OURSELVES

--Peter Fine is having a slow and difficult recovery in Johns Hopkins Hospital and is not yet ready for visitors.

--Rod Ferrell was a guest at the annual awards luncheon of the Maryland Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped in Baltimore, on January 22.

--Doin Hicks served as a consultant to the Bureau of Eduation of the Handicapped to draft regulations governing educational programs for the deaf and other handicapped persons.

--Ten Kendall School staff members attended the Conference on Developmental Psycho-Linguistics and Communication Disorders sponsored by the New York Academy of Sciences last week.
